Shortly after World War I, 1920s

Since The Southern Railroad was constructed to give people opportunities to travel overland all the way to the Malaysian border, the beach of Hua Hin has enjoyed a solid reputation as "the famous seaside resort of Siam" where visitors could enjoy swimming, fishing, and golfing on the country's first standard course (Hua Hin Royal Golf Course) during the weekends.

Hua Hin's rise came with the opening of the Railway Hotel (Hotel Sofitel Central), after the Southern line was completed. It was an elegant Victorian structure on the shore with vast rooms, private verandah, fancy fretwork decoration and wickerwork chairs in the lounge. Soon afterwards a first complex of bungalows (Central Hua Hin Village) was built together with a Victorian-style gazebo on a scenic group of rocks near Hua Hin Village, and this place, later, was selected as a venue in the film "The Devil's Paradise", as well as the Railway Hotel, which portrayed Phnom Penh's leading hotel in the hectic days just before that city's fall in the film "The Killing Fields".

Nowadays, among the development of the world, Hua Hin's pleasures are still placid, not all that different, indeed, from those enjoyed by the aristocratic visitors of its past. That's Hua Hin - the oldest beach resort of Siam with a sense of history and a peaceful but scenic atmosphere. That's beloved Hua Hin.

The Famous Hua Hin Night Market

A Must for a Walk

Hua Hin Night Market is a very famous place that millions of tourists have visited and experienced the diversity of food and souvenirs for over half a century.

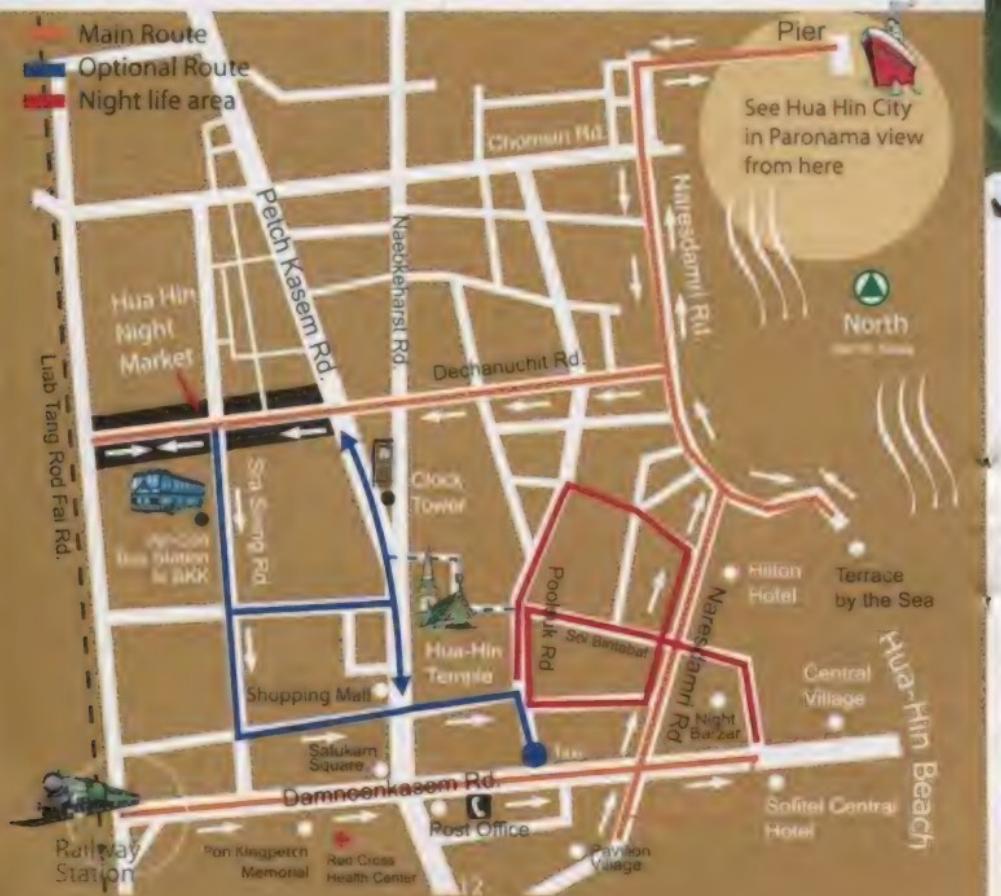

Open 7 days a week from 5:00 pm till midnight, this lively street starts at the intersection of Petchkasem road and Dechanuchit road, and continues to the west for 2 blocks. Each day, there are more than hundreds of shopping and food stalls stand along both sides of the street. This is great place to try a local Thai food and also shop for local suvenir items.

Leisure Route around Hua Hin

It's not a bad idea to start from historic place- Hua Hin Railway station, where you can touch a feeling of Hua Hin in 1920s, when most people arrived and left this beach resort by train. This is a nice place to take a picture for your memory about Hua Hin.

Walk straight to the east on Damneonkasem Rd., you'll see Pon Kingpatch (1st Thai boxing who won the World Boxing Champion) statue stands on the right side. Across the main Street-Petchkasem Rd., pass the Post office you will find many of nice restaurants in European style especially Italian. Go furthermore to very end of the road; you will enter another symbolic place of Hua Hin- Sofitel Central Hotel (1st hotel built in Hua Hin), where its landscape is unique by formed tree. Take some time relax at the Museum Café in the beautiful colonial architecture. (Suggest walking in from the side and outing at the main entrance.)

From the front of Sofitel Central's main entrance (Naresdamri Rd.), keep going on north, Hilton hotel seems to be a Landmark for Hua Hin already since more than 10 years ago (nice viewpoint on the 17th floor). Just follow the light, many kinds of restaurants, tailors, and souvenir shops along both side the road well describe why some people name this path "the Golden Mile". As you pass Hilton, small alley on the right will lead you to the terrace by the sea- another observation deck at the heart of Hua Hin.

All the way to the end, Fishing Pier is another spot that you could see Hua Hin in a wide skyline panorama. Coming in a right time, and you will see the nature sun beautifully set down behind the hill.

Back to Dechanuchit road, which leads you to the famous Hua Hin night market, where you could feel and touch the ordinary Thai way of life.

Approximate time spending: 2 hrs.

You may find a nice place for your dinner during your leisure trip.

After a walk at Night Market, other choices of optional routes are available with some scattering retail stores along. Also, nightlife area is just a short distance away.

Vinegar with sliced chilis

Prik Nam Som

Vinegar can be made from almost anything that contains sugar or starch. It is made from many different things; fruits, grains, roots even wood. It can be made directly from sugar but is best made by first converting the sugar into alcohol and then turning the alcohol into vinegar.

In Thailand the Vinegar or distilled vinegar is made from rice, and called NAM SOM SAI CHU in Thai.

For the condiment, vinegar with sliced chili pepper or "Prik-Nam-Som", is often used for adding spice and sour taste in most of Thai Noodle dishes such as Gouy Tiew Nam, Pad Thai, Rad Nah, Pad See Ew, Gouy Tiew Lord and lots more. The additional of Prik-Nam-Som provides a lot of dynamics to the final flavor.

THAI CHILI

There are so many types of chili pepper in Thailand. Different ones are used for different dishes. Prik Kee Nu is one of the most famous hot peppers of Thailand. This native Thai Bird Pepper is short (about 1") and plump. They are extremely hot and can really pack a punch. Don't let their small size fool you. Thai chilies really turn up the heat.

The peppers are considered ripe when red but they also can be eaten when green. The green peppers tend to have an earthier taste and the red peppers tend to have a floral taste. Excellent dried, crushed and used as a condiment for curries, stir-fried and some dipping sauce.

ร้านเจ๊เขียวชีฟู๊ด เปิดให้บริการความอร่อยมาแล้ว กว่า 10 ปี และขณะนี้ร้านเจ๊เขียวฯ ได้ย้ายมาอยู่แห่งเดิมที่ด้านติดทะเลแล้ว หลังจากมีดับรับปูรุณและยายทำเค้กไปปั้นคราฟ

เดินทางมาที่ร้านง่ายมากเดียว เพียงระยะทางประมาณ 5 กิโลเมตร จากศูนย์เมืองหัวหินขึ้นคลองมาทางถนนตะเกียนเข้าสู่หมู่บ้าน ผ่านร้าน 7/11 ไปประมาณ 100 เมตร ร้านจะอยู่ทางด้านซ้ายมือ สังเกตุป้ายร้าน เจ๊เขียว บริเวณขอยทางเข้า แล้วคุณก็จะได้สัมผัสถึงความอร่อยที่เรียกว่า ไม่น่าจะดีดีห่วงในเรื่องของรสชาติอาหาร ความสดใหม่ และ บรรยากาศริมทะเล

เวลาให้บริการ 10.00 – 22.00 น.

This hill is only 4 kms. south of Hua Hin, and can be reached by local minibus, the pickup car with green color (Rot Song Thaew) or, by continue a long relax walk from Hua Hin beach. There is a road leading to the top where a temple is situated. Many observation areas scatter around the hill, and from the view points, you will see Hua Hin city along with white sand beach as a bird eye view, which is one of a decent view of this town.

Kao Takiab

(Chopsticks Mountain)

Many of monkeys also live up there, that's the reason why some people also call "the monkey hill". At the base, north side, of the hill, the Giant Golden Buddah Statue stands against the cliff, and this has been a symbolic of Kao Takiab for a long time. Around Takiap area, there are many of seafood restaurants where you can dine before or after your trip to the top of Kao Takiab.
